THE ESSENTIALS

PREMIERING

The InterContinental Tampa will be the newest luxury hotel in the city's bustling, upscale Westshore business and shopping district. Featuring a contemporary, comfortable feel, the hotel's design will be reflective of the Florida seaside and the casual elegance of a fine business hotel. The hotel will offer truly distinctive, warm hospitality in the InterContinental style and will feature 323 richly appointed guest rooms and suites, as well as more than 21,000 square feet of meeting and event spaces.

The hotel will reopen in Fall 2007 as the new InterContinental Tampa.

Tampa Bay offers a unique blend of urban excitement in a natural surrounding.

RENOVATION

Lowe Enterprises has committed more than $18 million to completely remodel and reposition the hotel as a luxury InterContinental hotel, managed by Destination Hotels and Resorts.

- The entire hotel will be renovated in a sophisticated style, yet casual feel.
- Once completed, the hotel will offer more than 21,000 square feet of event space, including 7,000 square feet of atrium function space.
- Six of the hotel's junior suites will be upgraded to business suites with ergonomic chairs, meeting tables and outfitted for technology.
- The lobby will get a bright new look, creating a fresh, casual yet elegant atmosphere.

DESIGN

The design of the new InterContinental Tampa is a playful mix of contrasts – homage to the historical, coastal setting of Tampa set against a corporate urban location.

GUEST AMENITIES

- Guest rooms are 284 square feet
- King bed or two double beds with deluxe linens, pillow top mattresses and luxurious pillows
- Flat panel LCD television
- Alarm clock with iPod docking station
